Cesar Juarez is a bilingual problem solver. As one of a handful of fluent Spanish-speaking attorneys in South Dakota, Cesar gives a voice to South Dakotans and individuals throughout the Midwest whose needs have gone unmet for too long. Cesar advises business and governmental entities in cases where the accuracy and content of Spanish communications are important. He works with business owners, executives, and HR professionals to help their team close the communication gaps within workplaces between non-Spanish speaking and Spanish speaking employees. Cesar focuses primarily on employment law, insurance law, corporate law, and civil litigation cases, as well as expanding the firm's thriving business law practice. He works to anticipate and prevent legal issues in employment and corporate law by advising businesses and corporations through extensive planning and strategy to ensure compliance with all local, state, and federal laws and regulations. He finds innovative and creative solutions to efficiently and effectively resolve complex cases either through litigation or, even better, without litigation – worth it.
