Daniel J. Epstein (Dan) is a construction, business and commercial litigation attorney who helps his clients build resolutions, demolish disputes, and design strategies for success. Dan knows that “time is money”, especially in the construction industry. When deadlines aren’t met, materials are delayed, and payments are overdue, this leads to further problems evolving into costly projects and unhappy clients. Dan represents owners, general contractors, developers, architects, subcontractors, engineers, suppliers, insurers and lenders in countless disputes, state and federal court lawsuits and arbitrations. Dan’s vast litigation experience helps him give strategic advice to clients that protect assets, resolve disputes, and avoid future lawsuits. He listens closely to each client’s needs and goals to formulate a strategy to help them achieve their goals and overcome any obstacles. Dan solves problems involving non-performance, change order disputes, project delays, bond and lien issues, and insurance claims. Along with construction law, Dan focuses his practice on trial law, business and commercial litigation, and alternative dispute resolution. Call Dan today to keep your construction projects moving, protecting your assets, and having happy clients – worth it!
